

Team Management Profile Accreditation

$1995 ex gst | One Day Interactive Virtual Workshop

The Team Management Profile (TMP) is one of the world's leading psychometric profiling tools for personal, team and leadership development.

The TMP provides objective, constructive and work-focused insights. It helps people understand why they work the way they do, and assists them to develop strategies for improving how they work with others. Our TMP accreditation programme will provide you with a strong understanding of the models and concepts underpinning the TMP and prepare you to apply our practical suite of tools within your work environment.

TMP accreditation will...

- Give you knowledge and understanding of the core TMP concepts and framework
- Provide you with an overview of the TMS research programme and its relevance
- Familiarise you with our product delivery platform, TMS Global, and the suite of Diagnostic Tools and learning resources available to respondents for 2 years of ongoing learning
- Guide you through practical applications and activities to easily embed the TMP language and concepts into your organisation or work with clients, at both individual and team level
